Meet Joro: Are you looking for a loyal friend, someone who will love you day in and day out? Then you needn't look any further than here. I am the one who will follow you anywhere. I will always be happy to see you when you come home, happy to play with you, happy to curl up and nap when you just want to relax. Some dogs are plain kooky—and while I am still able to play the goof, I truly am just a loyal friend. And friends don't leave friends waiting. Friends look out for each other and when the time comes, a true friend will help out. So help me out. Take me home with you. From the moment you take me home, I will have your back—and your heart.

My Mutto: "The secret to life is—HEY LOOK, a squirrel!."

Things to Know: Joro is a 1 year old Rottweiler mix. She is black and tan in colour with gorgeous brown eyes. Joro has been waiting since November 14, 2011 for a forever home. A wooferdul home for Joro is one with lots of love and lots of time for both play and cuddles. Joro likes to think of herself as a lap dog sometimes. She is a great dog and she deserves a chance! Come see Joro at the Regina Humane Society or online at www.reginahumanesociety.ca
